

April - Autism Awareness Month

Orlando Hudson sponsors a fun-filled day at Danny's Farm

Dodger Second Baseman, Orlando Hudson, was at Danny's Farm on April 4th to support C.A.T.C.H. (Curing Autism Through Hope and Change), his foundation for autistic children.

Orlando Hudson poses with Dr. Laurie Stephens and Nikki Staggs from Education Spectrum

The musical group THE CONDUCTORS entertains the crowd at Danny's Farm on April 4th.

ZUNO PRODUCTIONS GIVES BACK TO THE COMMUNITY

Danny's Farm received a generous gift from Zuno Productions, a full service DJ Company through their "Gift of Giving" campaign. More than 300 people attended a fantastic event at Little Tokyo's Oiwake Restaurant/Lounge. Thank you Zuno Productions! More information about Zuno Productions and the event can be found at:

<http://zunoproductions.com/giftofgiving/>

T h a n k

Y o u

Orlando Hudson
www.orlandohudson1.com/catch.html

Altadena Stables
www.altadenastables.blogspot.com

Heart Gallery LA
www.heartgalleryla.org

Phillip Hain, Executive Director of Los Angeles Chapter, Autism Speaks www.autismspeaks.org

LAUP – Los Angeles Universal Preschool www.laup.net

Lovebirds Café & Bakery
www.lovebirdscafe.com

The Conductors Musical Group www.theconductorsusa.com

Paint Box Kids
www.paintboxkids.com

MACH 1 – Move a Child Higher www.moveachildhigher.org

Laura Levinson, LA Dodgers

ELA City College Volunteers

Laura Schuster and John Boxley

For Programs at Danny's Farm, please call 626-797-3276 or visit www.dannysfarm.com